Gathering Around the Word

Prelude Be Thou My Vision arr. Joseph Martin Hyoun Joo Song

Welcome and Announcements The Rev. Katie Day

*Call to Worship The Rev. Jody Andrade

One: Wind of God, who awakened creation and stirred dry bones to life—

All: sweep through this space and enliven our worship.

One: Wind of God, who descended as tongues of flame and gave birth to the church—

All: sweep through this space and ignite our hearts.

One: Wind of God, who guides our ministry and equips us for service—

All: sweep through this space and empower our witness.

This 20th-century text was written by a Presbyterian layperson and poet, who in her later years became interested in writing hymns for the seasons of the church year and prepared a collection of them for her congregation. It pairs effectively with this sturdy Welsh tune.

Call to Confession

The Rev. Jennie Sankey

Prayer of Confession

On the Day of Pentecost, O God, your children gathered. They received the gift of the Holy Spirit in whooshing wind and dancing flame, as you breathed into your people once again, just as you breathed life into your creation, made in your image from the dust of the earth. We feel dusty, God; our bones are dry. We have so many questions. Can these bones live? What does this mean? Breathe into us once more, and lead us in faith into your truth. Amen.

Affirmation of Faith

The Confession of 1967

Katie

God the Holy Spirit fulfills the work of reconciliation in human life. The Holy Spirit creates and renews the church as the community in which people are reconciled to God and to one another. The Spirit enables people to receive forgiveness as they forgive one another and to enjoy the peace of God as they make peace among themselves. In spite of their sin, the Spirit gives people power to become representatives of Jesus Christ and his gospel of reconciliation to all.

Pastoral Prayer

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

This setting expands and enhances the thematic inclusiveness of an early 20th-century text by adapting the melody of a traditional spiritual to carry these words. This 1940 pairing marked the first use of African American musical material in a mainline North American hymnal.
