

AN INTRODUCTION FROM OUR NEW SENIOR PASTOR, THE REV. KATIE DAY

Dear Friends,

I am delighted to be here as your new Pastor – finally! I’ve been looking forward to meeting you for so long...and now we can’t really “meet,” at least not in the way I’d envisioned. But God is at work among us, even when we are apart; this we can trust.

I hope to see many of you, if you’re able, at the drive-thru parade on Sunday following our online worship service. And, in the days and weeks to come, I hope to connect with as many of you as are willing over Zoom, FaceTime, or a phone call. You’ll get more information about signing up for those conversations next week.

My husband Kevin, son Elijah, and I have been in town a month now, and while we haven’t been able to explore much beyond our neighborhood, we are getting settled in our new home, and have unpacked most of our boxes. I am available to you as I work from home – please email me at katie@pleasanthillpc.org, or call me at the church office, 770-497-0233.

I am holding you all in prayer this weekend as I officially begin my call here, just as I’ve been holding you in prayer since I began this journey with the PNC late last fall – I feel blessed to be finally with you, and hope to meet you all soon!

Peace,
Katie
